AMUSEMENTS

At the Airdome.
The usual crowds were in attendance at the popular Bijou Airdome last night, and enjoyed an excellently arranged programme. The Garnella in their eccentric comedy sketch, "My Brother Johnny," were the laughing hit of the show. A feature of this act that deserves praise is the acrobatic work in the way of spins and "Arabes" as done by Mr. Garnella. He proved himself unique and adept in this line and won much applause. The act kept the audience in a continual roar of laughter, and is a rattling good comedy sketch.

At the Orpheum.
The Orpheum high class show will make a change of program today. The Roman trio, high class singers, will change their act and introduce that one big Italian hit, "My Brother Sylvester."
Don't fail to visit the Orpheum this week.
Nadell and Bell, in their high class comedy skit, "Flirtation," are continuing to take several curtains calls on each and every show.
The Orpheum will play another high class show next week which will make Pensacola theatregoers sit up and take notice.

The vaudeville and dance will be under the management of Geo. Vucovich and E. W. McIntyre, owners of the Orpheum, and these two gentlemen say that they intend to play nothing but first class vaudeville at the park.

The work is being rushed and for the opening Monday everything will likely be finished except the seats in the big open air theatre. However, the grounds will be covered with chairs so that every one will be able to sit and enjoy the best show ever seen here.
